

2006 Scholarship Competition Application

Maine Media Women will award $700 this year.

Full Name: _____

Social Security No: _____ Date of Birth: _____

Parents/Guardian/Contact Person: _____

Home Address: _____

Present School/Business: _____

Phone (Home): _____ (School/Business): _____

Accumulative point average: _____ on a _____ point scale

Previous semester average: _____

Total credit hours completed by February 1, 2006 _____

Class standing: _____ Expected graduation: _____

Estimate percentage of costs for your next year of college that will be provided by parents, that will be earned and/or provided from your savings by you, and any other sources of help, including scholarships, grants or loans you have received or have applied for.

Provided by parents: _____% Provided by self: _____%

Provided by loans, grants and scholarships: _____%

List scholarships received: _____

List loans, other financial aid: _____

What college(s) do you hope to attend? _____

What are your specific career goals? _____

List all academic, extra-curricular, and public service activities you have participated in that demonstrate your commitment to a career in mass communications:

List any experience you have had with the mass media, advertising, or public relations (internships, volunteering, part or full-time work):

Write a brief, carefully crafted essay, not exceeding 1 single spaced, typewritten page. Your subject is : “Why I am inspired to pursue a major in communications, and how I am planning to accomplish this goal.” This essay is a critical part of the judging.

Your application, your essay, and 2 letters of reference (not by family members) Must be received by April 1, 2006

Please mail to: Judith A (or Jude) Stone
 Maine Media Women Scholarship Chairwoman
 9 Sanborns Grove Road
 Bridgton, ME 04009-9412

Thank you for applying to Maine Media Women’s 2006 Scholarship Competition,